Where AI helps you find the argument

You've tried AI deck tools

- They generate slides fast

- The output looks professional

- But something's missing...

Pretty slides that don't land

The deck had information. It didn't have an argument.

Claude proposes

Generates structure. Sees your edits. Adapts.

You refine

Edit directly in Figma. Lock what's done.

"What about us brain-dead slobs?"

— You'll be given cushy jobs!
